Documentation Requirements

Documentation for medical expenses required by the IRS includes a third-party receipt containing the following information:

- Date service was received or purchase made
- Description of service or item purchased
- Dollar amount (after insurance, if applicable)

Documentation for dependent care expenses required by the IRS includes a third-party receipt containing the following information (Please be advised: if a receipt is unavailable, a signature from the provider is sufficient):

- Incurred dates of service
- Dollar amount
- Name of day care provider
- For Adult Care Services, a letter from the doctor or a Medical Necessity Form is required to identify that the dependent is physically or mentally disabled and unable to self-care.

Unacceptable forms of documentation include the following:

- Provider statements that only indicate the amount paid, balance forward or previous balance
- Credit card receipts that only reflect a payment
- Bills for prepaid dependent care/medical expenses where services have not yet occurred

When submitting a receipt for a co-payment amount, please be sure the co-payment description is on the receipt. In some cases, you will need to ask for a receipt at the point of service. If "co-payment" is not clearly identified, have the provider write "co-payment" on the receipt and sign it.
