

TOTUS TUUS

SUMMER CATECHETICAL PROGRAM

MISSIONARY INFORMATION

Diocese of Charlotte, NC

Brothers and Sisters,

Grace and peace of our Lord be with you! I pray that this upcoming school year will be filled with many blessings for you. As we look towards the summer, I could not be more excited about the upcoming months of preparations as we plan for TOTUS TUUS.

The mission of Totus Tuus is to inspire in young people a true longing for holiness, a deep desire for daily conversion, and an openness to their vocation by constantly challenging them to give themselves entirely to Christ through Mary and by continually strengthening their prayer lives in imitation of Her. After our first full summer in the Diocese of Charlotte we have seen fruits born among the youth and their families that are still growing today. Stories of conversions and vocations continue to spread, and parishes from all over the Southeast have caught wind of this movement of the Holy Spirit.

This coming summer, we will have three teams in the Diocese, consisting of college-aged students that will bring TOTUS TUUS to twenty-one parishes over a nine week period. The program is all-inclusive, providing classes and gatherings for every youth at the parish from 1st to 12th grade. You will be trained to run the entirety of the program and will depend on parish volunteers only for meals, housing, and other logistical details. Attached you will find several helpful documents, including a detailed description of our program, mission, and motivation as TOTUS TUUS.

I think you will find our program to be incredibly fulfilling in its opportunities for discipleship, teaching, and authentic Catholic community. Thank you for praying about this opportunity, and I look forward to working with you this summer!

Sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,

Chris Beal

DESCRIPTION OF TOTUS TUUS

TOTUS TUUS is a fun and energetic parish-based summer catechetical program, for both grade school age children and junior and senior high school youth. We gather qualified college students and seminarians into teams of four in order to train them and send them out on the road to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ in various parishes throughout the Diocese of Charlotte. Their youthfulness, energy, and ability to witness to the Faith make our missionaries particularly effective with children and young people.

The team serves for a week in each parish by putting on two programs. The first runs Sunday through Thursday from 7:00 PM–9:00 PM for junior and senior high school youth. Our goal is to put them in contact with the Risen Lord so they can develop a deep, personal relationship with Him. To this end, we have a night of Adoration, opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, relevant and vibrant catechesis, talks on vocational discernment, and an entire week of fellowship with the team members.

The team also presents a grade school program (grades 1-6) that runs Monday-Friday from 9:00 AM–2:30 PM. Our time is spent on catechetical instruction, songs, games, daily Mass, the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, lunch, recess and more. The program ends with water activities on Friday afternoon in celebration of the week. The focus is on imparting an understanding and love of the Eucharist, devotion to Mary, effective catechesis, vocational awareness, and of course a fun experience.

The team also strives to get to know each parish and its members. In order to do this, they stay with families of the parish, eat with different families throughout the week, and invite the entire parish to a “potluck” dinner on Wednesday night.

Over the past two decades, TOTUS TUUS has succeeded in reaching out to youth all over the country in order to help them know and love the Lord Jesus Christ. In addition to this, we have tried to help local parishes by providing a fun and strong summer catechetical program. By God’s grace, we look forward to continued growth in the Diocese of Charlotte.

OUR MOTIVATION & MISSION

TOTUS TUUS, Latin for “Totally Yours,” was the papal motto of our beloved John Paul II. Taken from St. Louis de Montfort’s great work, True Devotion to Mary, it represents our desire to give ourselves entirely to Jesus Christ through the hands of His Immaculate Mother. TOTUS TUUS, then, reminds us of the tremendous and difficult call to spend ourselves for Christ through the intercession of His Mother, and to preach the gospel to all nations.

The challenge to be a TOTUS TUUS missionary is accepted with great joy. The teams come to know and love the vitality, faith, and courage of all the youth they encounter. The youth themselves are seeking not just role models, but HEROES who are striving to live and proclaim, “Lord, I will be Totally Yours.” Therefore, missionaries serve these youth and share with them the blessings that God has given them. They dedicate their entire summers to the Lord, leading all they encounter to Him.

5 MARKS OF EVANGELIZATION

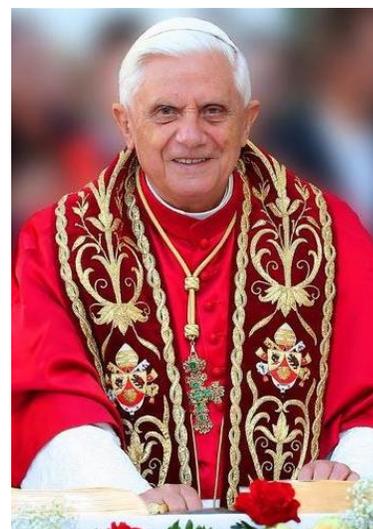

1. Proclamation of the Gospel... to arouse the faith.
2. Apologetics... to examine the reasons for our beliefs.
3. Christian Witness... an experience of Christian living.
4. Celebration of the Sacraments, especially Eucharist and Confession.
5. Active witness... of the missionary nature of the Catholic Church.

CATECHETICAL INSTRUCTION

TOTUS TUUS began in Wichita, Kansas over twenty years ago, has since spread to many dioceses across the country, and now in its second year in the Diocese of Charlotte. With its curriculum on a six-year cycle, every year provides fresh, vibrant catechesis. As Catholics, an ordered and systematic initiation into the revelation of God Himself is necessary for ongoing conversion. Stored in the depths of the Church's Sacred Tradition and Sacred Scripture, this revelation is constantly communicated from one generation to the next by a living, active faith.

The methodology, structure and content of TOTUS TUUS are concerned not only with teaching the faith but also with arousing it unceasingly with the help of grace, opening the heart to conversion, and encouraging total adherence to Jesus Christ on the part of those who are still on the threshold of faith.

THE TEAM

Each TOTUS TUUS team consists of four members – two men and two women. The teams will be chosen during a week of training according to their strengths so as to complement each other and work well together. The missionaries adhere to a well-defined schedule, which has as its foundation and backbone a structured prayer life.

TRAINING OF MISSIONARIES

Our missionaries begin their summers with a two week training at Belmont Abbey College with TOTUS TUUS missionaries from all over the country. Here, they are prepared to work as modern day evangelists. Each missionary is trained to articulate the information contained in the curriculum and all aspects of the parish catechetical program. Daily lesson plans are provided to the missionary. Additional training includes instruction in the mission of TOTUS TUUS, prayer, Catholic doctrine, Christian relationships, and evangelization skills. Opportunities for prayer, Eucharistic Adoration, daily Mass, Confession, team recreation, and fellowship complete a well-rounded week of training.

ON THE ROAD

Upon completion of training, teams will travel to parishes throughout the Diocese of Charlotte. As a part of TOTUS TUUS, missionaries will have the opportunity to teach all of the youth, ranging from first to twelfth grade. They will also assist in leading songs at daily Mass, praying with youth, and filling a number of other roles that may arise. The duties of the TOTUS TUUS team do not end in the classroom. While on the road, a TOTUS TUUS team is not only evangelizing the children and young adults that they teach, but also whomever God brings into their path.

ARRIVAL/PREPARATION/DEPARTURE

The team arrives at a parish Saturday evening prior to the week of teaching. The team leader will make announcements after all of the Masses that weekend. The team will then meet with a parish representative, tour the facilities, and set up and prepare for the coming week on Sunday afternoon. After putting on the weeklong program, the team will take Friday evening and Saturday morning for rest, recreation, and personal time. The teams are due to arrive at their next parish before the Vigil Mass on Saturday evenings.

The schedule of our missionaries is quite rigorous and demands all of the energy they can muster. This is deliberate so as to provide an intense giving of oneself in service to Jesus Christ and the spreading of His Gospel. It is when we are weak that we are strong, for the Lord's grace makes up for all that is lacking in us. In other words, it is meant to challenge and stretch our missionaries so as to form them in selfless generosity, so that they might truly say with our Holy Father John Paul II, in imitation of Mary's "yes" at the Annunciation, "TOTUS TUUS!"
