

The Sisters of Mercy, the African American Affairs Ministry, and Catholic Charities invite you to attend

Saved by Grace in Striving for a More Racially Just Church and Society presented by

Sr. Cora Marie Billings, RSM

Sister Cora Marie, a Sister of Mercy and life-long advocate for social justice, currently serves on the Institute of the Sisters of Mercy Anti-Racism Transformation Team.

Monday, May 6, 7:00 - 8:30 pm
(Doors open at 6:30 PM)

St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church, Murray Hall
728 West Union Street, Morganton, NC

This event is offered as an opportunity for people of faith to reflect upon the sin of racism as called for by the U.S. Bishops in their November 2018 pastoral letter against racism “Open Wide Our Hearts – the Enduring Call to Love”

Please send an email, with contact information, by Sunday, May 5 indicating your plan to attend this event: ccdcsca@charlottediocese.org.
